

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Aswin Kongsiri

Read PPE at St. Peter's College, Oxford, and is working with the Ministry of Finance, Bangkok. He will shortly leave to take up a post with the World Bank in Washington.

Leslie M. Beebe

Received a B.A. in French from Colorado College, then obtained her M.A. in Linguistics at the University of Michigan in 1969, and is presently working under a grant from the Foreign Area Fellowship Program to do research in Bangkok for her doctoral dissertation on Standard Thai.

Chob Kacha-ananda

Born 1939, Chaiya. B.A. Chulalongkorn University 1963. Researcher, Tribal Research Centre, Chiangmai (Hill Tribe Division, Public Welfare Department).

Jane Bunnag

M.A. Cantab., Ph.D. London. London-Cornell Project for South and Southeast Asia Scholar in Thailand 1966-67. Research Fellow and then Assistant Lecturer in Social Anthropology at the London School of Oriental and African Studies, 1967-9. 1969-70 with the Social Development Division, ECAFE, Bangkok.

Christopher Court

M.A. 1966 in Linguistics, Sydney University (thesis on the phonology of a Land Dayak dialect of Sarawak). Lecturer in Linguistics, Australian National University 1966-67. Since March 1968, attached to the Language Institute of the Department of Technical and Economic Co-operation, Bangkok, under the Colombo Plan.

Ekavidya Nathalang B.A., B.Ed., (Chulalongkorn), M.A. (Colorado), Ed.D. (Teachers College, Columbia). He is at present the Director of Elementary Education in the Department of Elementary and Adult Education, Ministry of Education. In 1969, he organised a seminar on "Lessons from the Last Hundred Years of Education," the papers of which have been published in both Thai and English.

Euayporn Kerdchouay

Born 1941, Nakorn Srithammaraj; Arts and Crafts School, Bangkok; Post-Diploma in Fine Art, Hornsey College of Art, London 1967. British Council bursar and Institute of International Education travelling scholar (1964-66). Now Administrative Secretary, Siam Society.

Dorothy Crawford Fippinger

B.S., M.A. Minnesota. Began working in Vietnam with the Summer Institute of Linguistics in 1966, and started work on the Black Tai in 1967. In 1970 published with her husband, Jay W. Fippinger, an article on the phonemes of Black Tai in Anthropological Linguistics.

Alexander B. Griswold

Born 1907 Baltimore. Studied at Princeton. President, Breezewood Foundation, partner of Alex Brown and Sons, Bankers and Visiting Professor, Cornell University. Publications include Dated Buddha Images of Northern Siam, King Mongkut of Siam, and Towards a History of Sukhodaya Art.

Hans-Eberhard Kauffmann

Born 1899, Mannheim (Germany). D. Phil., Zurich. Between the wars studied at the Vienna School of Anthropology and took part in expeditions in Assam and Chittagong. Appointed Professor of SEAsian Anthropology, Munich University in 1960. Since 1962 has carried out many ethnographical studies of the hill tribes of Northern Thailand, especially of the Lawa.

Paul W. O'Brien, S.J.

M.A. (Phil.), Lic. (Theol.), Ph.D. (Oriental Languages and Literature), University of California, Berkeley; has worked in China, Taiwan, Philippines, Vietnam, and Thailand. Publications include: Madhyāntavibhāgaśāstra, a Chapter on Reality.

Hans Penth

Studied at Frankfurt a.M., Paris, and Lisbon. D. Phil. Frankfurt. Since 1964 working in Thailand on the early and middle history and culture of the Lanna Thai; now Assistant Director, Lanna Thai Social Science Research Centre; Head, Cultural Anthropology Branch, Faculty of Social Science, Chiangmai University. Published a volume on Hikajat Atjeh, 1969.

Pitaya Bunnag

Born 1945 Bangkok. Completed the course in Industrial Design at the College of Art and Industrial Design, Newcastle, England, and patented three inventions. He is a free-lance photographer for various Bangkok publications.

Prasert na Nagara

Born 1919 Prae; Ph.D. Cornell in statistics; Vice-Rector, Kasetsart University. Publications include Handbook for Niras Haribunjaya A.D. 1517, The Linguistics of Northern Thai Dialects, Sukhothai History from Inscriptions, and Notes on Sukhothai Inscriptions.

Sanguan Chotisukharat is the author of numerous books, and papers on the history and culture of northern Thailand. He is the Editor of the Chiangmai weekly Thai Muang.

Sharom Ahmat

B.A. (Singapore), M.A. (Brown), Ph. D. (London, School of Oriental and African Studies). He teaches history at the University of Singapore and is Reviews Editor of the Journal of Southeast Asian Studies.

Michael Smithies

Born London 1932. M.A. Oxon., M.A. California., F.R.A.S. British Council 1960-67 (Education Officer, Thailand 1960-64, Regional Director, Cambodia 1964-5). Since 1967 with the University of Pittsburgh Thailand English Project and currently English Language

Adviser, Kasetsart University. Honorary Editor, Journal of the Siam Society since 1969; co-editor In Memoriam Phya Anuman Rajadhon (1970); Editor, Bulletin of the English Language Center, Bangkok.

Snoh Tanbunyuen

studied Mathematics at Cambridge and was for many years Professor of Mathematics at Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok. He is now working for the Thai section of the B.B.C., London.

Ute Sodemann

Born Glockner, 1940; carried out research in modern Thai literature from 1963-5 with a UNESCO grant at Chulalongkorn University. In 1967 submitted her doctoral dissertation at Freiburg on 'Literatursoziologische Untersuchung des thailändischen Romans im 20. Jahrhundert'. Since 1967 has been a lecturer at the South Asian Institute, Heidelberg University.

Laurence D. Stifel

is a visiting professor at the Faculty of Economics, Thammasat University and a staff member of the Rockefeller Foundation. He has been a Fulbright scholar at the University of the Philippines, a program economist for the U.S. Agency for International Development in Burma, and economic adviser to the National Economic Development Board, Thailand.

Tej Bunnag

Read History at King's College, Cambridge and subsequently studied at St. Antony's College, Oxford. D. Phil. Oxon 1969. He is now working in the Information Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Bangkok. Co-editor In Memoriam Phya Anuman Rajadhon (Siam Society) 1970; Honorary Librarian, Siam Society, since 1969.

Tem Smitinand

joined in 1940 the Royal Forest Department after finishing the 2-year course at the Phrae Forest School. With an FAO Fellowship he studied taxonomic botany in India, United Kingdom, Netherlands and France, 1952-3, and in 1954 became a Fellow of the Linnean Society, London. He received an honorary Ph.D. from Kasetsart University in 1969, and is now Director of the Forest Herbarium, Bangkok and Leader of the Natural History Section, Siam Society.

Thamsook Mumnonda

B.A. Chulalongkorn University, M.A. Hongkong, Ph.D. London. Currently a lecturer in History at the Faculty of Arts, Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok.

Walter F. Vella

born San Francisco 1924. M.A., Ph.D. California (Berkeley). Professor of History, University of Hawaii since 1962. Publications include Siam under Rama III, The Impact of the West on Government in Thailand, and Thailand, Aspects of Landscape and Life.

Voraputhi Jayanama

Barrister-at-Law (Middle Temple), M.A. (Fletcher School of International Law and Diplomacy). He was one of the co-founders of Chaturat monthly journal. At present, he works in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Gehan Wijeyewardene

B.A. (Ceylon), M.A., Ph.D. (Cambridge). Currently Senior Research Fellow, Australian National University and previously Lecturer in Social Studies, University of Singapore.

Hiram W. Woodward Jr.

A.B. Harvard, M.A. Yale; presently studying Thai art of the thirteenth century.

Yongyuth Yuthavong

Born 1944 B.Sc. London 1966; D.Phil. Oxford, 1969. A former editor and president of Samaggi Samagom in Britain, Dr. Yongyuth is now a lecturer in Biochemistry, Faculty of Science, Mahidol University.

