

THE SIAM SOCIETY 1987

Contributed manuscripts should be typed double-spaced on quarto paper (approximately 8 × 11 inches), with generous margins. The top copy should be submitted. All notes and references should be similarly typed double-spaced. References should include name of author (s), title, name and volume of periodical or relevant publication series (where applicable), date and place of publication (or nature of reference, if unpublished), and pagination (where appropriate). Page-proofs of Articles and Review Articles are sent to authors on request only. Originals of illustrations will be returned on request. Authors of published contributions receive extra copies of JSS free of charge. Additional copies will be supplied at cost price, but must be paid for in advance.

The Siam Society encourages readers to communicate to the Honorary Editor on differing opinion on, or corrections to, materials which appear in JSS. Suitably documented correspondence will be published under 'Communications', bearing the writer's name.

Manuscripts, books for review, and all correspondence should be sent to the Honorary Editor, Journal of the Siam Society, G.P.O. Box 65, Bangkok, Thailand. Subscription and membership enquiries, and publications orders, should be addressed to the Administrative Secretary, Siam Society, G.P.O. Box 65, Bangkok Thailand.

Exchange copies of periodicals should be sent to the Honorary Librarian, Siam Society, G.P.O. Box 65, Bangkok, Thailand.

ISSN 0304 – 226X

This kingdom was known as Siam until 1939, when its name was changed to Thailand. Then it reverted to the original name again in 1946. Two years after the coup d'état of 1947 it was decreed that the country would be called Thailand, and it remains so officially.

The Siamese, Cambodian and Laotian Buddhist Era seems to be one year later than that of Burma, Sri Lanka and India. In fact this is not so. The difference is that while the latter regards the year of the Maha Parinibbana as B.E.I, the former takes it to be the first anniversary after the Master's Passing Away. For example this year is B.E. 2530 according to the Siamese, Cambodian and Laotian Calendar, but it is B.E. 2531 according to the Burmese, Sri Lankan and Indian Calendar.
