NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The bulletin is open to members of the Society and all scientists, who are interested in the study of the natural history of South-East Asia

Manuscripts should be typewritten and double-spaced on one side of ordinary paper (Qto/Flscp), and submitted to the Hon. Editor. It is advisable that a paper should not exceed 20 typed pages to enable publication in one issue. The editor is prepared to accept longer manuscripts if the author will pay for the additional costs. These costs currently are approximately Baht .25 (U.S.\$02) per page, e.g. in 100 copies one extra page of manuscript will cost :  $.25 \times 100 =$  Baht 25.

Manuscripts should be submitted in final form. Two copies including the top-copy should be submitted for editorial use.

Latin scientific names and words or sentences to be italicized should be underlined once and bold-faced printing should be underlined twice.

Tables and diagrams should be on separate sheets, accompanied by explanatory headings, and numbered with Arabic numerals. Illustrations in colour must be arranged specially, but black and white photographic illustrations are welcomed; captions should be written on the back or attached. Line drawings should be made with Indian ink on white drawing paper and should indicate scale. Photographs should be printed on glossy paper with sharp contrast.

The author will receive 30 reprints free of charge. Joint authors will have to divide these copies between them. Reprints exceeding this number must be paid for by the author, and must be ordered with the typescript.

THE NATURAL HISTORY BULLETIN

The Natural History Bulletin is available free to Siam Society member at request. Back numbers are available at the following prizes: 1914 through 1965 at 50 Baht per number; 1966 to present 100 baht per issue. A list of contents of back numbers is available at Baht 5.

Subscriptions to the NHB are available to non-member and libraries at 150 baht (U.S. $ 7.50) per year, postage included.
