

CONTENTS

Editorial	1
Commentary:
TORBEN WOLFF, Thai-Danish Collaboration in Marine Research	3
Research articles:
MARTIN VAN DE BULT AND MARTIN GREIJMANS, Vegetation Types and the Deciduous-Evergreen Forest Continuum along an Elevation Gradient in Mae Wong National Park, Western Thailand	27
CHAYAN PICHANSOONTHON AND PIYA MOKKAMUL, A New Species of Caulokaempferia (Zingiberaceae) from Southern Laos	75
MARTIN VAN DE BULT AND ROBERT STEINMETZ, Rare Plants and New Tree Species Distribution Records from Thung Yai Naresuan Wildlife Sanctuary, Thailand	81
OLIVIER S. C. PAUWELS AND TANYA CHAN-ARD, Reptiles of Kaeng Krachan National Park, Western Thailand	89
PATHOM YIMKAO AND SOMPOAD SRIKOSAMATARA, Ecology and Site-based Conservation of the White-handed Gibbon (Hylobates lar L.) in Human-use Forests in Mae Hong Son Province, Northern Thailand	109
NOPPHADOL PRAYONG AND SOMPOAD SRIKOSAMATARA, Small Carnivores and Other Mammals in a Small Protected Area of 50 km ² in Thong Pha Phum Forest, Western Thailand	139
Notes:
J. F. MAXWELL, Botanical Notes on the Flora of Northern Thailand, 7: New Records	155
YUTTAYA YUYEN, PIYA CHALERMKLIN, AND VILAIWAN ANUSARNSUNTHORN, Goniothalmus elegans Ast (Annonaceae), a New Record for Thailand ...	159
Review:
Status of Birds and Large Mammals in Thailand's Dong Phrayayen – Khao Yai Forest Complex (A. J. LYNAM, P. D. ROUND AND W. Y. BROCKELMAN), reviewed by J. W. Duckworth	161
Recent publications	165
 Cover photo: Ban Luk Lam, a Black Lahu village in Mae Hong Son Province, where traditions discourage the hunting and eating of gibbons (photo by Pathom Yimkao). See article on page 109 by Pathom Yimkao and Sompoad Srikosamatara.

